

LIFE'S LIKE THAT By FRED NEHER

"Jack wanted peace and quiet... so the Easter Bunny came back a second time!"

Armed Forces

Daniel E. Davis, airman, son of Robert A. Davis of 22311 Ocean Ave., is serving aboard the support aircraft carrier USS Lexington, which visited New Orleans, La., recently as Mardi Gras guests.

New Orleans Mardi Gras officials invited the Lexington crewmen to attend the annual celebration.

The Lexington, now celebrating her 20th anniversary of naval service, was recently redesignated from attack carrier to support carrier. She is homeported in Pensacola, Fla., where she serves as a training carrier.

Leon A. Walters, interior communications electrician third class, USN, son of Mrs. Edna B. Mendenhall of 21104 Normandie Ave., is serving aboard the dock landing ship USS Catamount.

She operates from San Diego as part of the Pacific Fleet Amphibious Force.

The Catamount is used to land troops and equipment on invasion beaches. She periodically deploys to the Far East for duty with the Seventh Fleet.

Marine PFC John A. Russak, son of Mrs. Stephen C. Russak of 1604 W. 222nd St., and PFC Russell L. Throop, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Throop of 1912 W. 218th St., participated in the filming of a new television series, "The Lieutenant," while undergoing normal training at Camp Pendleton.

The director of the television series, on location at the Marine amphibious training base, needed a Marine unit to provide realistic background for the initial sequences depicting the life of a young Marine officer.

At the time, the Third Battalion, First Marine Division, was engaged in company tactics at Camp Pendleton and was selected to lend the needed background scenes.

Company tactics is one of many phases of a continual training program designed to keep the Fifth Marines combat ready.

Pvt. George J. Christian recently was assigned to Headquarters Company, U. S. Army, Ft. Myer, Va. He was graduated from Torrance High School in 1955. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Quayle C. Christian, live at 212 Via La Circula, Redondo Beach.

TO SPECIALIZE... Airman Basic Howard L. Oden, son of Mr. and Mrs. Loren F. Oden of 2712 W. 175th St., is being reassigned to Keesler AFB, Miss., for technical training as a United States Air Force communications operations specialist. The airman attended North High School.

Lance Cpl. Ralph Vargas, son of Mr. and Mrs. Manuel Vargas of 1055 204th St., Sgt. William F. Gunset, husband of the former Miss Jaquetta Mankin of 18916 Cerise Ave., both of Torrance, are serving with the Second Battalion, Third Marine Regiment of the Third Marine Division, currently undergoing seven weeks training at Camp Fuji, Japan.

The training program began with an amphibious landing which included live firing, small arms training and company and battalion level training problems.

Homebased at Okinawa, the Third Marine Division is the "force-in-readiness" ground element of the Seventh Fleet in the Far East.

Jimmie A. Bales, radarman third class, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard M. Bales of 958 W. 204th St., and Leonard H. Hall, airman apprentice, son of Elwood H. Hall of Clenburn Avenue, both of Torrance, are serving aboard the attack aircraft carrier USS Bon Homme Richard which arrived at Bremerton, Wash., recently for a four-month yard overhaul.

The Bon Homme Richard, homeported at San Diego, recently returned from seven months duty with the Seventh Fleet in the Far East.

Duane M. Sandland, fireman, son of Mrs. Marion Faver of 3905 Sepulveda Blvd., Lou N. Baker, seaman apprentice, son of Mrs. A. J. Weber of 165 W. 223rd St., both of Torrance, are serving aboard the Seventh Fleet aircraft carrier USS Ranger, which arrived in Yokosuka Japan, recently, for a two-week stay in port.

AIRMAN PIFER... Airman third class Robert A. Pifer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ward A. Pifer of 401 Ave. G, Redondo Beach, is being reassigned to Hamilton AFB, Calif., following his graduation from the United States Air Force technical training course for personnel specialists at Greenville AFB, Miss. He was trained to prepare and maintain personnel records and advise airmen on career problems.

Senior M/Sgt. Hugh A. Flynn has been awarded the Air Force Commendation Medal at Westover AFB, Mass.

The sergeant received the medal in recognition of his meritorious service as a munitions superintendent at Sheppard AFB, Tex.

He is married to the former Beverly J. Haptonstal, daughter of Howard Haptonstal of 2945 Winlock Road.
